

Introduction of myself

Hello everybody, my name is Zhang Zhehan . My English name is “Knight”. I use the name because I like a American TV show named “Knight Rider”. I come from China. I live in Shanghai. It’s a big city, I think, because the population of Shanghai is about twenty million. Due to Chinese law, my family can’t be a big one: just my father, my mother and me.

I like playing basketball and listening to music. My favorite basketball star is Iverson, and my favorite singer is Jay-Z and Westlife, also any Chinese singer. My favorite past time is hiking. Last year, I went to climb Mount Huangshan. It is one of the beautiful mountains in China.

In China, my favorite food is pork meat patties. It looks like a big meatball. Here, in Canada, my favorite food is Chinese pasta. My favorite subject is Math – maybe because it’s easy for me, as I have learned it five or six years ago. I like Canada, and I like Quebec; I enjoy the green grass here, I enjoy the variety of houses here, and of course I enjoy the clear skies and the shining stars found here.
