Last AskAway!!

School year is almost done!! Isn't it amazing?!

To make sure that you have a great time, and that you stay safe, I wanted to share that little picture regarding addictions.

Most often, people kept their problems hidden; so, an addictive behaviour could be just the symptom of those issues. Take a look at the picture: what is underwater might require to be dealt with first rather than what is above the water to see any changes.

Keep an open mind about it if you try out things or are already struggling. Look out for the people around you and be ready to give them a hand if they ask you for it.

For any situation, there is help available! You can phone Info-Social at any time; they will guide you towards the proper service. You can also visit this website (ROC Estrie) https://www.rocestrie.org/en/organizations.htm to access every community-based organisations in Estrie!

Feel free to come see me if you have any questions at all (O-301), go to Student Services or ask any teacher/SAT/supervisor/ etc. around and they will help you out in a heartbeat!

Again, make sure that you:

- $\Rightarrow$  set boundaries,
- $\Rightarrow$  stay safe,
- $\Rightarrow$  don't deal with someone else's consequences,
- ⇒ know what help and support you can get as well as where to get it,
- ⇒ reach out for any kind of help,
