Take a candid portrait of a friend, family member or someone in your community.

Write 10 lines about your favourite season.

Write a short story based on a dream you had.

Use this mini-poster as a label for your inspiration jar!

Make a blind drawing of what you see from your window.

Take a photo which features a pattern (eg: wood grain, bricks, tire marks, frost on a window).

Describe what each of your 5 senses is experiencing at any given moment (eg: during supptime, when you first wake up, when you're playing a sport).

Write a letter to the person you might be in 10 years time.

Describe what you would see if you were to fly over your neighbourhood in a helicopter.

Paint a watercolour of your favourite object.

Take a photo which features a reflection (eg: a pond, window, skating rink, sink full of dishes).

Write 1 line about each day of your week, starting today!

Write from the perspective of a local animal.

Write about a time when you felt you really belonged in your community.

Make a collage out of images from your local paper or magazine. Feel free to draw on or around the images!

Write about your favourite sweater, pair of shoes or piece of jewellery.

tyraces

Cut out these creative prompts, put them in a jar, pull one out and follow the prompt. Then, submit your result to the TYV contest!

This year's theme is: What interests YOU? Submissions should relate to some aspect of life in the Eastern Townships, past, present or future. We welcome one entry per category.
